

Keep NJ's Do Not Call Law as it is. I'm very concerned that the FCC will bow to pressure from businesses. Just because I may have done business with a particular company does not entitle that entity to call me with a sales pitch or 'special' offer if I am on the Do Not Call List. If there is a truly special offer, put it in writing. Most of the offers are insignificant and are not worth my time to even consider. If I've done business with a company and am satisfied with the product or service, I will use them again -- when I decide, not because they have succeeded in hounding me with phone calls.
